Even for the man who regards clothes simply as - clothes; who pays little heed to the vagaries of fashion, we have a message. It is true that we lay a great deal of emphasis upon the distinction of our productions-our tailormen are so trained that they could not do otherwise than give the best of their capabilities.

But-our prices are based upon quality only; for the distinction of model and fabric nothing extra is asked-therefore;

those who are indifferent to fashion should still be interested in garments of our creating, in that they represent an intrinsic standard for craftsmanship and finish possessed by no other ready-for-service apparel.
